"The soul of education is the education of the soul."
- Fr. Mac

I pray this special edition of Tartan Times finds each of you well. It is with a heavy heart that I pass along this statement from the Diocese of Lansing:

STATEMENT REGARDING REV MARK INGLOT

Rev Mark Inglot, Pastor of St Thomas Aquinas Church and St John Student Center, East Lansing has been placed on administrative leave from the parish. A claim of sexual harassment was made by an adult co-worker on September 5, 2018. Bishop Boyea began an immediate initial internal investigation. He received a report on Monday, September 10, 2018 that the claim was believed to be credible.

The diocese is committed to maintaining a workplace that is free of harassment of any kind, including sexual harassment. Credible claims of violations to our harassment policies or our Code of Conduct will be met with immediate action that may include disciplinary actions up to and including termination.

If you, or anyone you know has been harmed by anyone representing the Church, contact appropriate law enforcement. You may also contact the Diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator,

Cheryl Williams-Hecksel, LMSW, by phone at 888-308-6252, or via e-mail to: cwilliamshecksel@dioceseoflansing.org

Until further notice, the temporary administrator of St. Thomas Aquinas Parish is Rev Gary Koenigsknecht. Please pray for all involved.

Please direct any questions to Michael Diebold, Diocese of Lansing, Director of Communications, 517-853-7660, or via e-mail to: mdiebold@dioceseoflansing.org

Please know that if you do have any questions, Fr. Gary, Dcn. Dave Drayton, and myself will be available in the gymnasium at the closing of our school day. Please know that we have not and will not share this news with our students. As we partner with you, we believe it is a family decision to share this news. At this time, we ask that you hold us all in your prayers and that you join us for our All School Mass tomorrow morning at 8:10 a.m.

Yours in Christ,

Meghan K. Loughlin-Krusky, principal
